Q QUANTUM FIRST AUTOMATION

is an Independent distributor for thousand of items from leading manufacturers of Industrial Controls, Factory Automation, Electronics, Process Instrumentation, HVAC, Comm / Data and Electrical Products serving all across North America. Headquartered in Mississauga, Ontario, Canada. We also operate in US Office in Buffalo, NY to serve US customers. Our competent trained specialist with profound knowledge of automation industry, can source the best top quality products that enable us to serve the customers with complete solutions.

PLC REPAIR

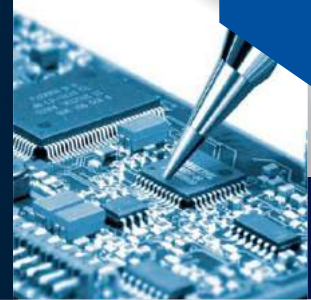

Top Brands We Repair

- AEG
- Allen Bradley
- Giddings & Lewis
- Honeywell
- Westinghouse
- Mitsubishi
- Mitsubishi
- Modicon
- Omron
- Texas Instruments
- Siemens
- Square D
- Telemecanique

We repair all major brands of PLC's, PC boards, HMI, Modbus Systems, Display Panels, Panel Controllers and many more items vital to the smooth operation of your business to provide you with the highest quality service. Our Experienced Team of Technicians quickly and easily check if a processor is communicating and allow our technicians to check the outputs and inputs of your PLC's to determine where the fault was after the repair is completed the unit is placed back into the rack and tested again to ensure that your unit is functioning properly.

Our parts department supplies the technician with any part they may need to service your equipment we are able to supply the parts needed to allow our facility to service a vast array of equipment ranging from new technology to legacy and obsolete products. Quantum First Automation has access to parts from our global network of dealers and manufactures which makes the process cost efficient.

Quantum First Automation has decades of experience in Factory Automation & Industrial Controls industry. A Programmable Logic Controller, PLC is a vital part of your equipment' relay, motion, industrial, output and process control. It provides communication for control and data acquisition for industrial and factory automation applications. Malfunctioning PLC Controllers and Control System have the potential to grind your business to a halt. You can reduce the downtime by contacting us and we can repair and help with your PLC Repair.
